ON HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE

Messrs Arthur Balfour & Co. Ltd.,

(See note below)

Capel House, 62 New Broad Street,

LONDON. E.C. 2.

In the case of non-delivery, return to EXPORT LICENSING BRANCH,
Board of Trade, Atlantic House, Holborn Viaduct, London, E.C.1.

* Insert name and address of person or company to whom licence is to be sent.

The above space must not be used for the transmission of the application to the Export Licensing Branch

NOTES (1) The exporter or shipper of the said goods, if so required by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs and Excise, must produce to them, within such time as they may allow, proof to their satisfaction that the said goods were duly delivered at the destination named in this licence.

(2) Nothing contained in this Licence shall be construed as exempting or intending to exempt any goods so transmitted from any provision of the Post Office Acts, or of the Customs Acts, or of any Treasury Warrant or Post Office Regulations for the time being in force, or from any rules or regulations (other than such prohibition of exportation as aforesaid) respecting the transmission of articles by post which may for the time being be in force, whether within the United Kingdom or in the countries or places to which such goods may be addressed.

(3) This Licence may be modified or revoked at any time by the Board of Trade without reason given. (4) EXPORT LICENCES ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE. If any alteration is desired in this Licence it must be returned with a request for amendment. No unauthorised alteration is permissible. The consent of the Export Licensing Branch must be obtained to any proposal to change the destination.

(5) GOODS BEING SENT BY POST. This licence is available for one posting only and must be surrendered at the Post Office at the time of posting even if the quantity of goods posted is less than that shown on the licence. The licence should be inserted in an envelope marked "Export Licence" and the envelope attached securely to the outside of the package, or in the case of a batch of packets to one of them. Failure to carry out these instructions may lead to delay in transmission of the goods.

(6) GOODS BEING SENT OTHERWISE THAN BY POST. The licence must be produced with the relative shipping bill to the Collector of Customs and Excise at the port of exportation before shipment of goods.

In the event of non-delivery, return to
